You are planning your holiday and you want to arrange who will sleep where in the house

Bedroom 1

- ❖ For the person who has made the booking and done all the hard work sorting out the holiday
- ❖ Emperor bed (6ft 4ins by 7ft) - suitable for a couple with plenty of room for young children to sleep in between, if they don't want to sleep away from parents or grandparents
- ❖ Great for family to meet up in the morning and all sit around in bed together
- ❖ Outside street light – this can't be switched off so this bedroom is not for light sleepers
- ❖ Sitting up in bed, you can sometimes see cows grazing on the Cotswold escarpment
- ❖ Ensuite bathroom with (power) shower over

Bedroom 2

- ❖ Double bed – suitable for a couple
- ❖ Shutters on the large windows - good if you like darkness
- ❖ Front of house next to market square
- ❖ Sitting up in bed in the morning is interesting because you can see the life in the market square without anyone knowing that you are watching them...
- ❖ You get the morning sun into this room
- ❖ Ensuite (power) shower room

Bedroom 3

- ❖ Twin beds
- ❖ Shutters on the window - this is the room if you have children who can only sleep in darkness
- ❖ Front of house next to market square
- ❖ The morning sun streams into this room
- ❖ Good light for reading in bed

Bedroom 4

- ❖ Twin beds
- ❖ Curtains at window do let in light, including the morning sun
- ❖ Front of house next to market square
- ❖ Good lighting for reading in bed
- ❖ Just at the top of stairs so good if you need to supervise children
- ❖ Smallest room but still plenty of space for two people

Bedroom 5

- ❖ Together with Bedroom 6 forms a family suite sleeping six
- ❖ In bedroom 5, two captain beds that are singles with beds underneath that slide out. These can form either three singles (two 3ft & one 2ft 6ins) or one double (5 ft 6ins) plus one single (3 ft)
- ❖ Blinds at window let in some light, including the morning sun
- ❖ Front of house next to market square
- ❖ Just at top of stairs so easy access
- ❖ Walk through room to Bedroom 6 so occupants must know each other
- ❖ Choice of bathrooms (family bathroom just outside bedroom or stairs up to Bedroom 6)
- ❖ Cot - but can be moved to another room

Bedroom 6

- ❖ Three single beds accessed through Bedroom 5
- ❖ Bedroom door that closes so can be separate from Bedroom 5
- ❖ Blinds on windows let in some light
- ❖ Large roof windows only and so a lot of privacy
- ❖ No noise from the rest of the house
- ❖ Features exposed beams in ceiling that were ships' timbers
- ❖ Ensuite (power) shower room
- ❖ Saniflo lavatory and so care in what you put down the loo
